PRESIDENT SNUBS SECRETARY SMITH.

Retaliation Follows the Latter's Stand on the Silver Question.

Appointment of a Government Railroad Director Made Over His Head.

Jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior Was Entirely Ignored.

John Sheridan, One of Postmaster-General Wilson's Friends, Obtains the Office.

HOKE WAS NOT EVEN CONCULTED.

It is Believed Now That the President Desired to Rebuke Mr. Smlth and Reward Mr. Wilson for His Fealty to Gold Money.

Washington, D. C., July 29,-President Cleveland has administered his first rebuke to Secretary Hoke Smith for his manly stand in support of the Democratic party and its ticket. He has appointed John Sheridan, of West Virginia, a special friend of Postmaster-General Wilson, Government director of the Union Pacific Railroad, without even consulting Secretary Smith, whose department has jurisdiction over the Government roads.

President Cleveland is noted for his arbitrary manner of making appointments over the heads of the members of his Cabinet, he has usaully advised them in advance of his intention. In this case even that courtesy was not extended to the Secretary of the Interior.

Secretary Smith, in pursuing the course which party fealty and duty to his constituents impelled him to take, has sought to manifest the highest degree of respect and consideration for the President. Hhe has refrained from utering a single word that might be construed as even an indirect criticism of the President. A snub of the direct character involved in this appointment, under the circumstances would seem to call for some prompt action on his part. He, however, decides to maintain the reticence that has characterized his recent past in connection with the Cabinet and his probable retirement therefrom. He is not yet ready to publically proclaim his line of action.

Secretary Smith in the Dark,

So completely in the dark was Mr. Smith that he has declared he knew nothing of the appointment until after it had been announced.

Postmaster-General Wilson has evidently racanted his recently implied promise to support the regular Democracy. He has east his lot with the gold Democrats, if the assertions of his West Virginia friends are correct.

The gold Democrats of that State are endeavoring to get up a meeting for the purpose of organization. Their plan is to meet the day following the regular Democratic State Convention.

A written call for the meeting of gold Democrats is now in circulation, and those having it in charge declare that the signature of Postmaster-General Wilson will appended to it. Thus it appears that Mr. Wilson is making fair weather with the President. The sudden decision of the Postmaster-General to take the gold route in the pending fight seems to indicate that he has had some advice as to the President's

If so, he has been favored beyond other members of the Cabinet for some of them are still in the dark as to what the President intends to do.

Snub to Mr. Smith.

Mr. Cleveland's known views against the free coinage of silver were entirely in accord with those expressed by his Secretary of the Interior in his recent joint discussion with ex-Speaker Crisp in Georgia. But the fact that Mr. Smith's newspaper, the Atlanta Journal, has since come out in favor of Bryan and Sewall and free silver, and the further fact that Mr. Smith himself is advertised to open the campaign in favor of Bryan and free silver at Augusta, Ga., on the 12th of August next, have naturally revived the rumors that Mr. Smith's resignation as a member of President Cleveland's Cabinet will either be requested or enforced within a very few days.

Secretary Smith, being asked this evening whether it was true that he proposed to go to Gray Gables for consultation with President Cleveland prior to entering upon the Georgia campaign, declined to make any statement for publication.

Who the Nominee Is.

Until the last Democratic Convention he was a National Committeeman from West Virginia. "I do not care to talk about what will be done at the meeting," said Mr. Sheehan yesterday, "but Tammany will support the nominees. The State Convention will meet in a few weeks, and we may let it wrestle with the platform problem."

Most of the district leaders want the platform indorsed. Jacob Seabold, of the Thirty-fifth Assembly District, who is one of County Clerk Henry D. Purroy's lieutenants, said yesterday that he believed it would be indorsed. He is trying to secure one of the Harlem theatres for some night next week for a ratification meeting.

No date has yet been selected for a big ratification meeting in the Fourteenth street headquarters, but this will probably be discussed at to-morrow's meeting. Several districts will go on record next week.

Several districts will go on record next week.

Another question that will come up at to-morrow's meeting is what part Tammany will play in the notification of the national nominees at Madison Square Garden the second week of August.

Each of the thirty-six district leaders will submit a list of election inspectors, poil clerks and ballot clerks for the November election. Tammany Hall is entitled to half of the officers. The entirelist must be filed with the Police Commissioners by Saturday.

at Washington. Washington, July 29 .- At a conference this morning between Senators Stewart, of the Silver Committee, and Faulkner, of the Democratic Congressional Committee, it was decided that while the two committees would work in harmony they would not be merged, for the reason that the Silver Com mittee would know best the needs of their SEVERAL OF THE GUESTS BADLY INJUREC.

CROKER, TOO, FOR BRYAM

So a Friend Says, and This May Result in Combination of Croker and Murphy Against Hill.

The combination of Richard Croker and Senator Edward Murphy may upset the calculations of Senator Hill in the next State Convention, as it did in the one held in Syracuse a year ago.

A Tammany leader, deres a says that the former Tammany chieftain has sent word to friends that he will su port Bryan and Sewall, and after he ma this known Senator Murphy declared fo the ticket. It is also said that Croker will be home before the State Convention. Croker will never remain quiet, his friends say, and permit ex-Sheriff O'Brien, his most ancient enemy, to use the silver agi-tation in building up an organization. Therefore, they say, he may force the say, and permit ex-Sheriff O'Brien, his most ancient enemy, to use the silver agitation in building up an organization. Therefore, they say, he may force the State Convention to go further than Senator Hill may desire.

Neither Croker nor Senator Gorman, who will really direct the national campaign, is desirous of advancing Hill's political fortunes. In the event of Bryan's election, Croker would want to control the Sederal patronage here, and Gorman would neel pilm.

Besides, if a Republican succeeds Hill in the Senate, Mr. Murphy would be entitled to all the patronage, as he would have two years to serve.
